

My Profile

Dario Gamba

Partner
Tax & Business Advisory Division

Professional Background

I am a chartered accountant with over 25 years professional experience servicing clients ranging from private family businesses to ASX listed corporations.

I have worked at partner level providing taxation, accounting, and business advisory services since 2000, having previously held senior positions with several Big 4 and mid-tier international accounting firms.

I am a member of the tax committee of DFK International, Chair of the DFK Australia New Zealand Tax Committee and Chair of the DFK Asia Pacific Tax Group, where I actively participate in the coordination and advancement of tax expertise within Australian and internationally. My speaking engagements include presentations to various professional bodies and discussion groups.

I am a trusted client advisor providing strategic and practical taxation, accounting and business advisory services to primarily private family businesses. I very much value the close working relationship I have with my clients which includes taking a genuine interest in their financial affairs and aspirations.

My clients range from individual taxation returns to clients listed on the ASX. The majority of clients are private family businesses from various industries including manufacturing, construction, retail, wholesale, services, and agriculture.
